1 DECEMBER 2018

COMMEMORATING
30 YEARS

"I continue to celebrate now and again as the benefit is huge. If I never knew about my HIV-positive status, I could have infected my children; they were only able to be free from HIV because I knew my status and I took treatment."

Jokapeci, Fiji.
AIDS activist,
living with HIV
for more than 20 years, mother
of four children,
all HIV-free.
